2. Open each of the six parts in turn, read or watch it, and choose Mark as done.

4. Watch the class do the exercise and tap 1, 2, 3 or 4 beside each child. Each score saves as you tap.

Read a child’s assessment profile

1. In your class list, choose a child.
2. The profile starts with the two assessments: movements secure on each chart, the table of exercise scores at each point, start and end totals, and the summary comments.
3. If a pattern of low scores shows, the profile says May benefit from extra support, with the reasons.
4. The earlier readiness check (0 to 3) follows underneath.

Good to know: The profile describes progress with the programme. It is never a diagnosis, and every view of a child’s record is logged.
